Thorobred

July/August/September

LeRoy Summers was appointed vice-president for business affairs and treasurer for the university. He assumed the position July 1.

Dr. Howard Ross was named vice-president for academic affairs. His duties began July 15.

Three members resigned from the Board of Regents August 22 rather than accept President Wolfe's appointments to the board. They also had many questions about the state of the university and its progress.

The Kentucky State University football team defeated Morehouse College Tigers 17-14 on August 31. This game left the Thorobreds undefeated.

A Black History Club was introduced by Freshman Class President Michele Coleman, and was approved by the Student Government Association. The first meeting was held September 7.

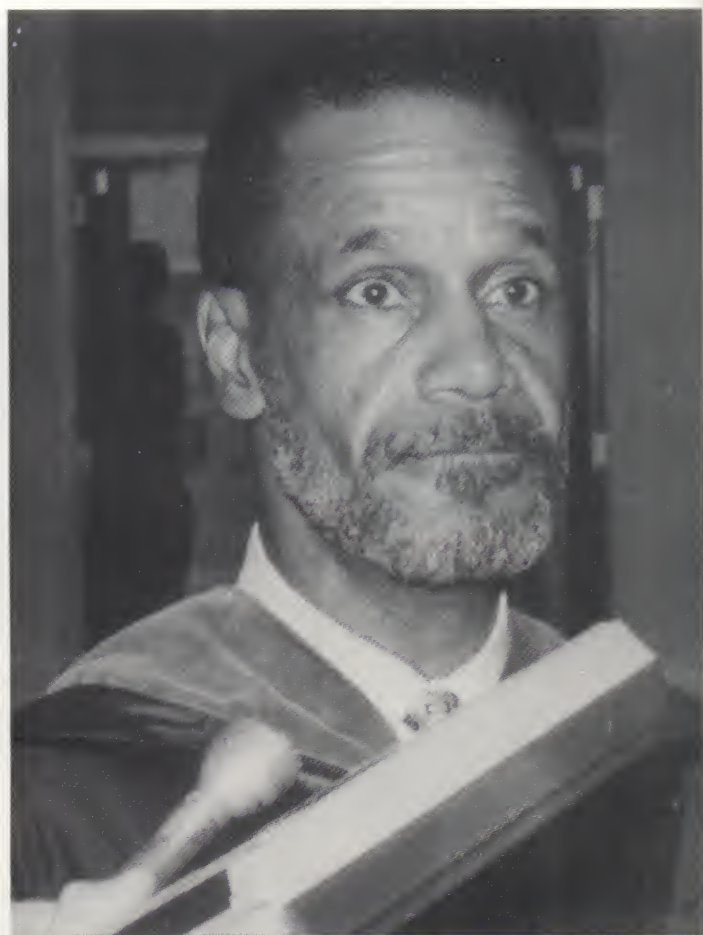

Students and faculty were reassured on August 29 by President John T. Wolfe that the goal of "Advancement of Kentucky State University as an institution of higher learning" was still being sought after by himself and the Board of Regents.

The Office of Career Planning and Placement and the Department of Home Economics presented a fashion show September 20 in the Carl Hill Student Center. Fashions and models from McAlpin's of Lexington were featured.

A reception and autograph session was held in the student center lobby for Los Angeles Clipper star Gary Grant. Grant's brother, Michael Grant, is an assistant coach for the KSU men's basketball team.

Numerous visitors came to view Kentucky State University's beautiful 475 acre campus in hopes of catching the Throbreed Spirit.

The Homecoming Talent Show was won by Camille Turner.

October/November

Keith Heiland

Ram-dal Jones

Juanita Allen was crowned 1991-1992 Miss Kentucky State University on October 3.

President John T. Wolfe ordered an investigation into the plans for Hillcrest Place by the attorney general.

The Reverend Jesse Jackson visited KSU on October 6 to show support for President John T. Wolfe and to assist KSU in "moving from an unfortunate battle ground of division to a common ground of unity."

Nine charges were formally brought against President Wolfe on October 7.

Students marched to the state capitol on October 11 to show their support of President John T. Wolfe.

A sit-in was staged in Hume Hall on October 11. A list of twelve demands was presented to key officials. Students involved in the sit-in felt that the board was neglecting the voice of the student body. The sit-in was organized as an attempt to get the attention of the Board of Regents. The sit-in ended October 12.

Dr. John T. Wolfe, Jr. officially resigned from his role as president of Kentucky State University on October 12.

Warren Darnell Kellebrew was named Mr. Freshman for the 1991-1992 school year.

Willie Ray was named as Kentucky State University's campus king in October.

Bomb threats threatened Hathaway Hall, Blazer Library, Hume Hall, and the student center three different times during October. Students were evacuated from these buildings. The threats were only false alarms.

Dr. Carl H. Smith's Show Jazz Choir entered its second year by performing at a luncheon for the Kentucky Housing Authority.

KSU's golf team, coached by Dr. Eddie Morris, looked forward to an exciting season with several returning players as well as several new additions.

Men's basketball Head Coach George James, Jr. was joined by two new additions to his coaching staff. The additions were Donnie Morgan and Douglas Whitman.

In November, KSU began preparing to take its classes on the road via a new mobile computer laboratory that would bring education and training to the university's six-county service area. The thirty-four foot mobile lab is a self-contained unit with fourteen Zenith 386 computers, a file server, and printer.

KSU's Cross Country Team began their season by competing in the Bellarmine Classic in Louisville, Kentucky.

December/January

KSU' men's basketball team dropped their record to 7-1 by suffering a 104-99 loss to Kentucky Wesleyan College. The Thorobreds were ranked nineteenth in the nation before the January 4 game.

Reverend Kevin W. Cosby spoke at the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. birthday celebration held in Bradford Hall Auditorium on January 16.

President Mary L. Smith gave the State of the University address January 23.

Students were found not guilty for barricading themselves in Hume Hall and staging a sit-in during Homecoming.

Hathaway Hall had a facelift. A new decorative brick walk and guard rails were added.

The Thorobred Marching Band participated in a parade in Atlanta, Georgia. The parade was held in celebration of the life of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Enrollment was up again in Kentucky according to the Kentucky Council on Higher Education. Frankfort's enrollment had increased for the sixth consecutive year.

A January news release revealed that KSU, in following with the recycling program implemented across the state, recycles 8000 pounds of paper and 2500 pounds of cardboard each month.

KSU's Co-Operative Extension Program received $750,000 in grants.

February/March

Charles Dorsey

Charles Dorsey

Student Life, Miss KSU Juanita Allen, and Miss Pride of KSU Stephanie Thomas sponsored a fashion show February 8.

Shaun Bohanan was crowned Mr. Kentucky State University on February 12. John Mason and Harry Patton were runners up.

Construction began on the Cooperative Extension Program Facility February 18. The guest speaker for the occasion was Governor Brereton Jones.

"Quilts From the South: African American Traditions" was shown in the Jackson Hall Art Gallery through February and March.

African American History Month was celebrated with a convocation in Bradford Hall Auditorium. The guest speaker was William Turner.

Kuhlman Corporation of Versailles made a major donation to the Industrial Technology Department in February. The equipment donated allowed students to have more hands-on experience with modern equipment.

Dr. George Shields had an article entitled "Harts Horne and Creel on Impassability" published in Volume 21, No. 1 edition of Process Studies in February.

A Regional College Fair was held in the Bell Gym on March 10. Booths were set up for students to browse through. Information was available from other universities, vocational and trade schools, and military schools.

Stephanie Thomas was crowned Miss Pride of Kentucky on March 19. Tracy Baker and Kelli Van Buren were runners up.

A convocation was held March 19. Lydia Lewis, Miss Kentucky 1973, was the guest speaker.

The NAACP hosted its spring membership drive March 23.

Beginning in March, a series of open forums were conducted by President Mary L. Smith on the first Wednesday of each month. The purpose of the forum was for students to discuss issues related to their education at the university.

A Crime Stoppers program was put into effect during March. Students who provided information about a crime could receive as much as $500.

Students who had not paid their tuition were not allowed to eat at the cafeteria or grill during the second week in March.

Dr. Dennis Weeks had his book, Steps Toward Salvation: An Examination of Coinherence and Substitution in the Seven Novels of Charles Williams, published in March.

Dr. Richard Taylor had his fourth book published in March. The name of the book was Three Kentucky Tragedies.

Blazer Library welcomed its new on-line card catalogue (BRAIN).

More parking spaces were added next to McCullin Hall and ASB.

April/May/June

Shaun Greene was crowned Miss Kentucky State University 92-93 on April 6.

On May 9, graduation and the investiture of Mary L. Smith as president of KSU took place.

Dr. Harrison B. Wilson and Dr. James Y. Peoples received honorary Doctorates of Humane Letters from KSU on May 9. Wilson was the president of Norfolk State University. Peoples was an educator in Illinois.

Dr. Steven H. Gale published his tenth book, S.J. Perelman: Critical Essays, in May.

Dr. Roosevelt Shelton was named a member of the Kentucky Arts Council Civil Rights Advisory Committee in May.

KSU's Department of Education, in May, received a $25,000 grant for the purchase of microcomputers for their program. The money was part of the KERA (Kentucky Education Reform Act) program.

John H. Bruce, Director of the Office of Education Research retired on June 30. Bruce spent more than thirty years working in the Kentucky educational system.

KSU's Cooperative Extension Program received $750,000 in grants.

Two former KSU officials, Charles Lambert and McArthur Darby, filed law suits against the university for alleged discrimination.

Former KSU professor, Robert K. Landrum, filed suit against KSU for alleged denial of records requests. Another suit against the university, filed by Landrum, alleges that he was freed on the basis of age and race.

Natashia ... Like A Dove

Natashia ... Like a Dove
so sweet and kind, yes a gentle spirit
yet strong and determined

Natashia ... Like a Dove
On this earth but for a little while yet you touched the souls of those who loved you

Natashia ... Like a Dove
has spread her beautiful wings to a place where there is no pain or woes

Natashia ... Like a Dove
will greatly be missed
yet her radiant smile will remain in our hearts ... forever

Natashia ... Like a Dove
has taken flight
and God has welcomed an angel
with his loving arms

Natashia ... Like a Dove
Your family and friends take solace in knowing that one day, we too will touch your wings.

In memory of Natashia, by Artye Walters, a

God's Eight Diamonds On Loan

God spoke to me one sunny day.
He said, "I will lend you this gift; remember what I say.
In a voice so gentle, sweet, and kind,
Always remember, it's not yours. But it's all mine.

I unwrapped this gift. He gave to me.
Nothing in this would like it was ever to be.
The mystery of the wrapping was something to behold.
God has given me a gift more precious than gold.

I asked God if He was sure this was all mine.
He said, "Yes. I do this for all Mankind.
With my gifts, I can show you all my love.
Remember, I control all earth and Heaven above."

The gift was a ring with eight diamonds so bold.
What a sight to see has never been told. "I express to God love with all my might.
He said, "Loving all my children is my greatest delight."

The eight diamonds beamed like the stars in the sky.
Something so radiant was sent from on high.
Joy and happiness was felt deep in my heart.
Few thoughts of tomorrow, or how soon one must part.

Of the ring of eight diamonds sent down from God's Heaven.
I discovered, on Wednesday, one missing. There were only seven
God smiled, and reminded me that it was only a loan.

He had plucked one diamond, claiming it for his very own.

I asked if I would see the diamond, and when.
Oh yes, just ask me for forgiveness for all of your sins.
Your diamond is safe, at the foot of my throne.

- I will return your lost diamond when I call you home.

Written on April 14, 1992 by James E. Jacobs, Sr. In memory of one of his eight diamonds, granddaughter Natashia Paul'et Wilson.

Charles Dorsey

Charles Dorsey

Charles Dorsey

Ran-Dal Jones

The man who plays the blues.

"I sing because I am free!"

I have a dream that one day this nation will rise up and live out the true meaning of its creed: "We hold these truths to be self-evident; that all men are created equal."

I have a dream that one day on the red hills of Georgia the sons of former slaves and the sons of former slave owners will be able to sit down together at the table of brotherhood.

I have a dream that one day even the state of Mississippi, a desert state sweltering with the heat of injustice and oppression, will be transformed into an oasis of freedom and justice.

I have a dream that my four little children will one day live in a nation where they will not be judged by the color of their skin but by the content of their character.

I have a dream today.

I have a dream that one day the state of Alabama, whose governor's lips are presently dripping with the words of interposition and nullification, will be transformed into a situation where little black boys and black girls will be able to join hands with little white boys and white girls and walk together as sisters and brothers.

I have a dream today.

I have dream that one day every valley shall be exalted, every hill and mountain shall be made low, the rough places will be made plains, and the crooked places will be made straight, and the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together.

This is our hope. This is the faith with which I return to the South. With this faith we will be able to hew out of the mountain of despair a stone of hope. With this faith we will be able to transform the jangling discords of our nation into a beautiful symphony of brotherhood. With this faith we will be able to work together, to pray together, to struggle together, to go to jail together, to stand up for freedom together, knowing that we will be free one day.

This will be the day when all of God's children will be able to sing with new meaning, "My country 'tis of thee, sweet land of liberty, of thee I sing. Land where my fathers died, land of the pilgrim's pride, from every mountainside, let freedom ring."

And if America is to be a great nation this must become true. So let freedom ring from the prodigious hilltops of New Hampshire. Let freedom ring from the mighty mountains of New York. Let freedom ring from the heightening Alleghenies of Pennsylvania!

Let freedom ring from the snowcapped Rockies of Colorado!

Let freedom ring from the curvaceous peaks of California!

But not only that; let freedom ring from Stone Mountain of Georgia!

Let freedom ring from Lookout Mountain of Tennessee!

Let freedom ring, when we let it ring from every village and every hamlet, from every state and every city, we will be able to speed up that day when all of God's children, black men and white men, Jews and Gentiles, Protestants and Catholics, will be able to join hands and sing in the words of the old Negro spiritual, "Free at last! Free at last! thank God almighty, we are free at last!"

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. (1929-1968) was an outstanding leader for civil rights, a firm advocate of non-violence, a Baptist minister and a peacemaker. He organized the Southern Leadership Conference to win justice and equality for all people. Although he was often arrested and threatened with violence, he never gave up his struggle and dream for justice, nor abandoned his belief in peaceful methods. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. is remembered as a great African American and is highly respected by historically black colleges, universities and American people across the United States.

Elizabeth City State	21-18	W
Jacksonville State	7-42	L

Lonnie McLemore and Walter High led KSU's exploding offensive attack by keeping the defense off balance.

Ran-dal Jones

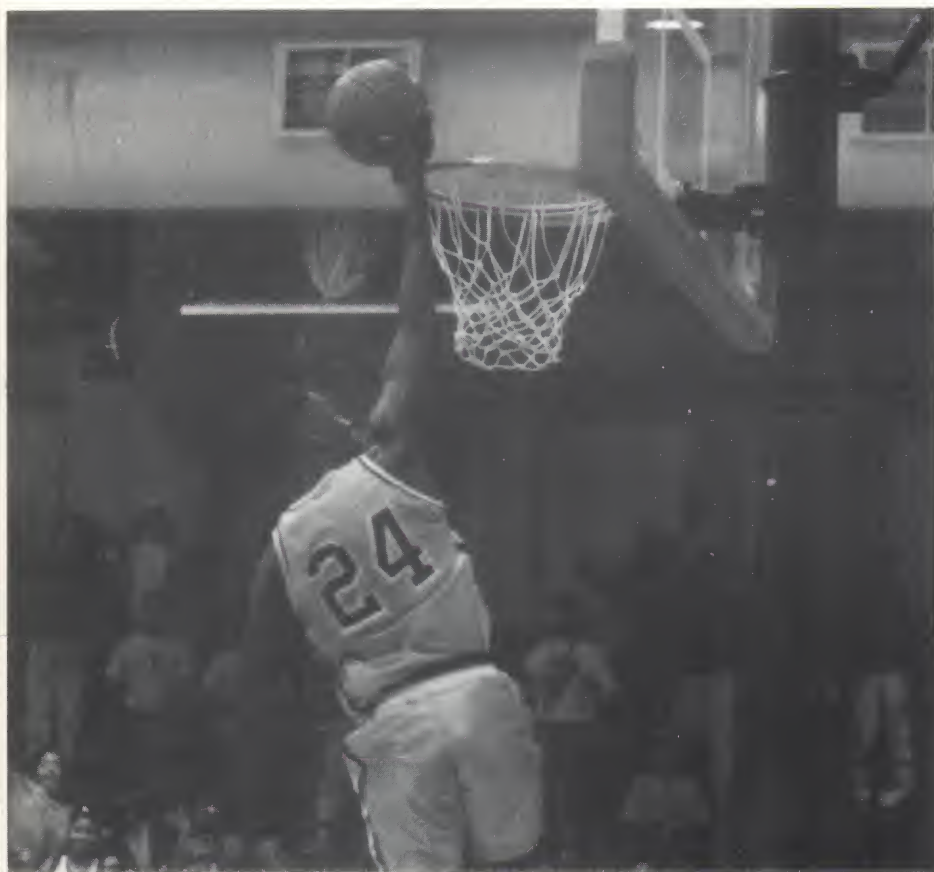

Ran-dal Jones

Kentucky State stuffs Winston-Salem's power backs and high powered offensive line for no gain.

Staff

Cornell Forrest lays in two more points to add to the Thorobred Spirit.

Charles Dorsey

Cedrick Fuller pulls a Michael Jordan move on the opposition.

Eric Little attempts a two pointer; but it is blocked by a Central State player.

Charles Dorsey

Alan Glover attempts a field goal in KSU's loss to Kentucky Wesleyan. This loss broke the Thorobred's seven game winning streak.

President Mary L. Smith faces yet another endless stream of reporters.

Keith Hellard

"Thank goodness for computers," thinks Leola Travis while doing her work for the president.

John Bator makes some suggestions to a student on how to improve an already impressive work.

an Lester Newman and President Mary L. Smith show that they are t all work and no play, as many students believe.
